be changed, that we are not to be put upon a silver basis, not to adopt the Mexican system of finance, but are to continue the present basis with gold, silver and paper, all equal, credit, which is more than half of the capital of this or any other country, will be reins-lated. We will once more, in my judgment, enter upon a betterera. (Great applause.)

My fellow-citizens, I thank you for this visit. This year, as in every crisis in the history of the country, men of all parties are uniting together. Men who have been Democrats, men who have belonged to other political parties in the past, loving their country and its honor more than they love party, are with us this year. We well-come them all, and standing together. I am quite sure that on November 3 the verdict will teach to the whole world that the American people love honesty and that the American Government will maintain its financial honor at any cost. (Great applause.) cost. (Great applause.)

MEETING OF THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTE -ENCOURAGING REPORT OF PROFES-SOR ALONZO WILLIAMS.

Chairman Hanna called a meeting of the Exec Chairman Hanna called a meeting of the Executive Committee at Republican National Head-quarters yesterday afternoon to consider campaign suggestions proposed by Charles Foster, former Secretary of the Treasury under President Harrison. M.. Foster had been in consultation with Hanna for an hour preceding the executive Garret A. Hobart was also present at the meet-

The committee discussed the situation and the funds available for conducting a more extensive campaign during the month still remaining before the election. Further consideration will be given the plan at another meeting this week.

Senator Quay, who went to Philadelphia last week, was not present at headquarters yesterday. He is expected back to-morrow.

Among the callers who saw Mr. Hanna yesterday.

day were H. McKay Twombly, and George E. Matthews, of Buffalo. Another visitor at head-quarters was James Dundon, of No. 208 West Twenty-third-st., who said that he would bet $30,000 that McKinley will be elected. He placed a $1,000 bet about a week ago, but has not been able to find any other takers. An aggressive campaign is now being cond An aggressive campaign is the by the National Committee in Virginia, and the State will, it is expected, vote with West Virginia and Maryland for the Republican ticket, according to the polls made in a number of districts.

Professor Alonzo Williams, of the faculty of Brown University, who is making a speaking tour for McKinley and sound money, remarked at headquarters yesterday:

"In 1881 I went into the service of my country because I felt that I must go. In 1896 I enlist again from the same impulse, the same impelling sense of duty. Among college men, whether in faculty o student ranks, the sentiment is practically universal in favor of sound currency, proper government and National honor. Of all the men I know or have heard of in Brown, Yale, Harvard, Cornell, and the other colleges of the country, East and West, there is only one man who is for free silver coinage. It is significant, too, that the great number of men in college circles, who entered the so-called Mugwump ranks ten or twelve years ago, who are inclined free trade and have always lingered on the borders ranks ten or twelve years ago, who are inclined to free trade and have always lingered on the borders of Democracy for that reason, are now solidly in line for McKinley, because they realize that an issue is presented this year of too grave import to be overshadowed by a question of ordinary economics.

"Recently I made a husiness trip through the West, and I am satisfied that if we work hard and keep it up night and day until election, we shall win, even in those States we have regarded as doubtful territory. Constant vigilance and effort are as necessary in the political contest as in a football game to guard against flukes. In Missouri, ex-Congressman Willian Warner, formerly Grand Commander of the Grand Army of the Republic, told me that the State had never so stiff a fight as the Republicans were putting up there and will continue to the end, with the earnest hope of winning out. As to Kansas, we can certainly win there. The farmers there, I know by personal contact with many representatives of them, feel that his free-coinage agitation is costing them at a ruinous rate. They have an abundant crop, especially of corn, but they cannot get ready money to crib it. Why? Lenders are afraid to lend and they do not lend. The farmers are intelligent and realize that, if the mere threat is so injurious, the actual blow must be disastrous.

"In Nebraska the Eryan sentiment was not nearly so strong as I expected to find it. A large number mere threat is so injurious, the actual blow must be disastrous.

"In Nebraska the Eryan sentiment was not nearly so strong as I expected to find it. A large number of people, especially the women, have the sentimental notion that it would be a pleasant thing to have a Nebraskan in the White House, but the bone and sinew of the State are not Bryan worshippers by any means. They look upon him as a political accident, and will not desert their party to support him. His own city and ward will go for Mc-Kinley, and I believe the State will do the same."

Mr. Hanna will remain at headquarters here until next Tuesday, when he will leave for Chicago to be in charge of the headquarters there until the election. Speaking about the personal campaign which Bryan is making, Mr. Hanna said yesterday:

"I don't see how his personal tour and speeches an have much effect on intelligent and fair-minded

TRADES SOUND MONEY MEETINGS.

The Hat Trade Sound Money Club held a McKinlev and Hobart meeting at No. 30 Waverley Place yesterday. The hall was comfortably filled. William B. Thorn presided. Professor Alonzo Williams, of Brown University, and Charles Baker were the speakers. The Pioneer Sextet (colored), four male and two female voices, sang several selections.

Oscar Hoffstadt, an importer, of this city, and

D. E. Henning, a commercial traveller, of Philadel-phia, were the speakers at yesterday's noon-day meeting of the Commercial Travellers' Sound Money League, at Broadway and Prince-st. The speakers at to-day's meeting will be ex-Governor Waller of Connecticut, a Sound Money Democrat, and John W. Scott, of Pennsylvania. Mark A. Hanna is to speak at to-morrow's meeting.

The Wholesale Drygoods Republican Club held

The Wholesale Drygoods Republican Club held its regular noon meeting at its club rooms, No. 350 Broadway, yesterday. The singing of campaign songs, under the leadership of Charles Griffin and Charles L. Van Baar, opened the meeting. The speakers were Jacob Kemple, of West Virginia; Jerome Carty, of Philadelphia; J. Frank Supplee, of Baltimore, who declared that Maryland would give McKinley 25,000 majority; J. H. Roberts, of lilinois; William B. Aston and J. Leslie Gossin.

Thomas McDougall, a leading member of the Cincinnati bar, and the author of the Ohio Liquor law, after which the Raines bill was patterned in part, is to address the Wholesale Drygoods Sound Money Club to-day. Mr. McDougall is the intimate friend of Governor McKinley.

SENATOR BLACKBURN'S DELUSIONS.

HE PREDICTS THAT BRYAN WILL CARRY THIRT

STATES, INCLUDING KENTUCKY. nator J. C. S. Blackburn, of Kentucky, who addressed the Bryan mass-meeting on Tuesday even-ing, was still in the city yesterday, and was at the Waldorf. He practically admits that the State of New-York is lost to the Democrats, and talks bit-terly about what he calls the treachery of certain leaders, but when he comes to speaking of the situation over the country he grows enthusiastic.
"Why." he said yesterday, "in this campaign I have covered this country. South and West, pretty thoroughly, and I am convinced that Bryan is going to carry thirty of the forty-five States. I base that calculation upon the fact that there is a general uprising in favor of free silver over the country, and upon what I have seen and heard." Senator Blackburn says that the people of the East are lamentably ignorant about the situation in the West, remarking: "Eastern people do not seem to think that any part of the United States lies west of the Allegheny Mountains, and so know nothing of the interest in the free-silver cause that it felt out there. Four months ago no man who considered himself a prophet would have said that the Democratic party had a chance of carrying the election this year? Now, however, matters are changed, and there is a host of bright, intelligent, free-mind-ed, patriotic men at work for Bryan, and confident

"How will your State go?" Mr. Blackburn was "How will your State 99?" Mr. Blackburn was asked. He glanced at the speaker with an astonished look. "Kentucky," he said, emphatically, "will go for Bryan, and his majority will be a large one. I see that New-Yorkers are predicting that Kentucky will go Republican, the vote going 40 Palmer being sufficient to weaken Bryan, so that he will lose. That is nonsense. I make the prediction that the Palmer and Buckner ticket will not carry a county. Congress or State election district, and that the total vote cast will be insignificant. When Election Day comes the gold Democrats, in most cases, will either vote for McKinley or else remain true to party traditions and vote for Bryan, and not hazard the chance of losing their vote. The third party is growing weaker each day, and will make no showing."

Benator Blackburn expects to make a hurrah campaign from now until Election Day. He will make several speeches, and says he thinks that Bryan's majority in the electoral college will be a surprise to Eastern people.

CHAUNCEY M. DEPEW GOING WEST.

HE IS TO DELIVER A MEMORIAL ADDRESS AND TREN' WILL MAKE CAMPAIGN SPEECHES.

Chauncey M. Depew is getting ready to invade the West. He is to make a memorial address at Galesburg, Ill., on October 7, and he intends to take advantage of his presence in the West to make one or two political speeches in Mr. Bryan's country. Mr. Bryan, at his meeting in Tammany Hall, said that if he was elected President he would not have Mr. Depew coming to Washington to remind him of favors and ask for legislation. Mr. Depew was laughing over this remark yesterday, and said that he judged there would be about as much chance of Mr. Bryan distributing favors as of his doing it. He intends to leave here next Monday and go direct to Galesburg, where he will make an address in commemoration of the great debate between Lincoln will make a political address in Galesburg. From will make a political address in Galesburg. From there he will go to Chicago, where he is to speak on Chicago Day at the great Collseum. He will have a warm reception there, especially as Tillman, Altgeld, Bryan and Watson are booked for speeches in Chicago upon the same day at various meetings. Next he will go to Ann Arbor, make an address there on October 10, and then return home.

Mr. Depew sald yesterday: "I expect to find a huge change of opinion in the West when I get out there. Almost two years ago I made a speech in Detroit for the gold standard at a time when the free-colnage sentiment in that county was most free-colnage sentiment in that county was most each time I have gone West since I have found a gradual but sure change of opinion. There is not so much of the sentiment out there now as there was. The bottom has fallen out of Bryan's boom. He collapsed physically in New-York, and his cause has already collapsed. The end is written, and the victory of Major McKinley will be so telling, so effective, so overwhelming that Bryanism will be blotted off the face of the earth and annihilated for all time."

LOYAL COLORADO REPUBLICANS.

THEY HOLD THEIR STATE CONVENTION AND NAME A TICKET-SENATOR WOL-COTT PRESIDES.

Colorado Springs, Col., Sept. 30 .- The State Convention of the Republicans was held in this city his afternoon and named a complete ticket. The Ist Congress District Convention this morning ominated T. R. Hoffmeyer, of La Junta. Senator E. O. Wolcott was the permanent chairman of the State Convention, and made a speech defending his position He said that while he considered free coinage of silver a necessity at this time, he yet held free government a greater necessity. He had said that he would join a great political party other than the Republican party if it would adopt free silver in its platform, but he had never supposed then that he would have to stand on the Chicago platform with ex-Governor Walte and "General Coxey to do it. This ticket was named:

For Governor-Judge GEORGE W. ALLEN, of Arapah County. County.

Liceutenant-Governor — HOSEA TOWNSEND, Custer County.
Secretary of State—E. PRICE, Mesa County.

MR. HOLLS KEEPS UP HIS GOOD WORK.

TELLING ARGUMENTS FOR HONEST MONEY BE FORE A BIG AUDIENCE AT CHAR-LOTTESVILLE, VA.

Charlottesville, Va., Sept. 30 (Special).-Notwith standing the furious storm, a large and representative audience filled the new Jefferson Auditorium here last evening to greet Frederick W. Holls, of New-York, who came to speak for honest money. Mr. Holls's address had been advertised as especially intended for the students of the University of Virginia, many of the is use of the campaign in a calm and philosophical manner, laying particular stress upon the crisis con-fronting the cause of higher education if Bryan's ampairn of barbarism and Anarchy should not meet with overwhelming and disgraceful defeat. He made a searching examination of the "counterfeit Ameri-canism." and alleged "independence of Europe," upon which Mr. Bryan lays so much stress, and his appeal for true patriotism, modelled after that of the fathers of the proud Old Dominion, was enthusiastically received.
Many Sound Money Democrats were present and expressed cordial approval of the address. The Popocrats regard this as one of their strongholds, and Senator Daniel is expected to address the people here

NOMINATED FOR CONGRESS.

Little Falls, N. Y., Sept. 30.-Ex-Assemblyman Cornelius Haley, of Utica, was nominated for Congress by the Democrats of the XXIId District today. The Chicago platform and nominees were in-dorsed. Mr. Haley favors free silver. Watkins N. Y., Sept. 35.—At a convention held here this afternoon by the National Democratic party of the XXIXth District, Demelville Page, of Baltimore, Sept. 30.—Thomas C. Weeks was nominated for Congress to-day by the Democrats of the HId Congress District, to succeed Harry Welles Rusk, who has represented the district at Washington since 1886.

William J. Ogden was nominated as the free silver candidate for Congress by the Democrats of the IVth District, to succeed John K. Cowen.

HARRISON TO SPEAK IN WEST VIRGINIA. Cincinnati, Sept. 30.-A dispatch to "The Post" from Charleston, W. Va., says: "The Republicar State Committee announces that ex-President Harrison will speak here Tuesday or Wednesday next."

A BANNER UNFURLED AT YONKORS.

About 4,000 enthusiastic Yonkers citizens assembled last evening to see the raising of a McKinley and Hobart flag in North Broad-st., between Dock and Maine sts. The flag was a big one and so was the demonstration on the part of the crowd when the banner was flung to the breeze by the Lincoln Legion, of which William M. Floyd is president, Sound-money speeches were made by State Sen-ator J. Irving Burns, Congressman Ben Fairchild and C. J. Snyder, of Yonkers. Before the flag-raising there was a parade through the principal streets. There were in line about 500 men from the Young Men's Republican Club, Hebrew Republican Club, Colored Republican Club and the Lincoln Legion. After the outdoor addresses the speakers were entertained by the Lincoln Legion at the organization's rooms in Warburton-ave.

POPOCRATIC HEADQUARTERS DISMAL.

It was dismal in the Popocratic headquarters at the Hotel Bartholdi yesterday. As Chairman Jones confessed, the Popocratic campaign is virtually with-out a cent. William P. St. John, the treasurer without a treasury, had nothing to do at headquarters and stayed at home. There was a meeting of the State Executive Committee in the morning to con-coct ways and means by which to raise funds for the campaign in New-York, but no way out of the the campaign in New-York, but no way out of the difficulty was seen. The members left the head-quarters in disgust.

A few Tammanylites whose clothes were sill damp from remaining out doors in the storm to near Bryan, according to orders, were also at the Bartholdi. They did not seem enthusiastic. In fact, they had changed wonderfully since the night before, when, under the lynx eyes of the Tammany leftders, they had to yell for Bryan till they were hoarse.

Elliot Danforth, as chairman of the State Committee, made the only pretence of doing something at headquarters. He received several letters and spent the afternoon in dictating answers.

MONTANA FOR MCKINLEY.

Heman Clark, the well-known railroad contractor who has a large irrigating plant in Montana, and who is a Republican, said yesterday of the political situation in Montana: "The State is now safe for McKinley, sithough a while ago it seemed doubtful because of the silver issue. But the protection issue has overshadowed the other question. We want protection to the wool industry in that State. Why, in the Juduth basin alone, which is a hundred miles square, there are 3,000,000 sheep."

A REACTION IN NEBRASKA.

Washington, Sept. 20.-Representative Halner, of

CONGRESSMAN HAINER PREDICTS THAT THE REPUBLICANS WILL CARRY THE STATE.

Nebraska, was at Republican headquarters to-day. Nebriska, was at Republican negaquariers to-day,
"I don't want to make any blustering statements," he sald, "but I know that I am conservative in saying that McKinley will get the electoral vote of my
State. There has been a decided reaction. At first State pride entered very largely into the problem but the Nebraska people are not repudiators, and can always be relied upon for their loyalty to the welfare of the country. We shall not have a walkover, for Nebraska has become something of a political battlefield in this campaign; every store window in the cities has a lithograph either of McKinley or Bryan, but five out of every six business men even in Lincoln are for sound money. The farming classes are all right, despite the fact that they have suffered under a great prostration of business and three successive crop failures. Under such provocation not many States would be true to the conservative lines. We have not forgotten how one crop failure caused famine in Russia in 1891, and how the people of Nebraska got together and filted out a hip, and of provisions to relieve the discress in that rich agricultural country; nor has it been forgotten that when Congress was asked to pay for the transportation William J. Bryan was among those who vored against the appropriation to send the ship across the waters on its mission of mercy. You will find, in spite of the confusing statements made about the result; in Nebraska, that in the final round-up Nebraska will be a Republican State still. HARMONY IN MASSACHUSETTS.

ONLY ONE CONTEST EXPECTED AT THE REPUB-LICAN STATE CONVENTION TO-DAY. Boston, Sept. 30 .- The convention of the Republicans of Massichusetts, which meets to-morrow morning at 10 o'clock, bids fair to be one of the smoothest-running conventions of recent years. Quite a large number of delegates and local party ders gathered at the American House to-night, but after paying their respects to Governor Wolcott nd other State officials at the pre-convention re ception, they, almost to a man, disappeared at an early hour.

The only contest is on the Lieutenant-Governorship nomination, and it seems to be generally conceded that W. Murray Crane will secure the prize over Colonel Samuel Winslow by an over helming majority. Congressman Walker, of Worcester, is expected to nominate Winslow, and Senator Lawrence will perform a like service for Crane.

The platform will indorse McKinley and the St. Louis platform, and will demand stricter supervision of corporations, and that they should be appraised at a fair value to prevent stock watering. It is understood that mention of blennial elections will be omitted arom the platform.

Neither Senator Lodge nor Senator Hoar will attend the convention. Chairman Lyman will call it to order and Congressman Draper will be permanent chairman. Harmony is expected to reign supreme from beginning to end. The present State officers will be renominated.

A NOMINATION PROTESTED.

Senator Pavey, as attorney for Samuel G. French, a written objection to the certificate of nomination of Lawrence E. Brown for member of Assembly on the Republican ticket in the XXIXth Assembly District A certificate of nomination of Mr. French for As-sembly in the same district on the Republican ticket is also on file in the Elections Bureau. Mr. Brown's certificate is signed by Nathaniel A. Elsberg, as certificate is signed by Nathaniel A. Elsberg, as presiding officer of the convention making the nomination. Mr. French in his protest alleges that Mr. Elsberg was not the presiding officer of the convention, and that Mr. Brown was not nominated at the convention of delegates representing the Republican party. He also makes affidavit that Mr. Brown did not receive the votes of a majority of the legally eligible, duly elected and regularly qualified members of the convention. Mr. French says that he is the only regular nominee of the Republican party for member of Assembly in the XXIXth Assembly District. The protest will be heard by the Police Board.

HE HAD HIS CHOICE OF NOMINATIONS. Stamford, Sept. 30.-Town Clerk William Wateroury, who declined to run on the Democratic ticket, was nominated by the Republicans last night. He favors the election of McKinley.

FOR DISTRICT CYCLE PARADES. The McKinley Cycle League of the XXXVth Assembly District is ready to enroll wheelmen who wish to take part in the district parades, and particularly the great business men's demonstration of October 31. Membership free until election. Ap plications for enrolment should be sent to Robert E A. Landauer, secretary of the League, Taylor-st, near West Farms, or to cycle headquarters, No. 19 West Twenty-fourth-st. A postal card will answer if you have not time to appear in person.

NOTES OF THE CANVASS.

Several hundred of the workingmen of the gasst. yesterday at noon and cheered the raising of two large McKinley and Hobart flags at that point. The flags are among the largest on the East Side. They were raised under the auspices of the Will-Henkel Republican Association, which will also raise two more in the near future. The committee in charge of yesterday's banner-raising con-sisted of P. F. McGowan, Frank E. Daly, William F. Searing, H. M. Lush, James T. Keller, Frederick Bartels and John Hanon.

A McKinley and Hobart banner, 26 by 42 feet, wa unfurled by the Lincoln Pioneer Club of the Vth Assembly District at West Fourth and Tenth sts. last night. The banner was a present from C. L. Gompper, the president of the club. Abrahan Gruber, John Murray Mitchell, Lucas L. Var Allen, Clarence Butler, John Rafferty and Major Jacob Kemple, of West Virginia, made speeches to the large crowd present.

The Harlem Republican Club will hold an outdoor meeting on Saturday evening at its head-quarters, No. 145 West One-hundred-and-twentyfifth-st. George F. Von Kolnitz, of South Carolina, and other interesting speakers will address the meeting.

The Campaign Committee has decided to hold a similar meeting on every Saturday evening until

The Union Printers' Sound Money Club, composed of the allied printing trades of Greater New-York, whose mette is "A Sound 100-Cent Dollar and a Chance to Earn It," meets to-night at No. 125 Park Row, over Root's restaurant, and will listen to speeches by Messrs. Nurney, of Troy; Professor Clark, F. B. Rotrock, J. A. King, E. C. Fechner, M. J. Harrington and others.

One of the largest McKinley and Hobart honestmoney flags in the dry goods district will be raised in Greene-st., near Broome, on next Saturday at noon. Subscriptions were made by the employes of Hardt & Lindgans and Oelbermann, Dommerich

One reason why women are so generally troubled with some derangement of the distinctly feminine organism is that as girls they learn nothing about their own physicial make up. Parents are waking up to the importance of education of this kind, and young women are becoming more and more able to take care of their health.

Carelessness in girlhood causes the greatest suffering and unhappiness in after life. Little irregularities and weaknesses in girls should be looked after promptly and treatment given at once. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription promotes regularity of all feminine functions, makes strength and builds up a sturdy health with which to meet the trials to come.

"I have been a sufferer from 'female weakness' for six years. I grew worse; had severe cutting pains in left ovary, also in left side and stomach. The pain in left side was constant. I would have light spasms previous to monthly period and when the spasm would leave I would suffer from severe soreness all over and could bear nothing to touch me. I also suffered from severe headaches; burning pressure on brain which almost caused me to be insane. I could not lay my head down without smothering. My face was poor; eyea looked dead; wasted in flesh. I was constipated and suffered severe pain when bowels would act. I could not eat for the fullness in region obstomach. I had tried three of the best doctors here but they only gave me temporary relief. I had given up all hope of ever getting well again. At last I concluded to give Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription a trial. I have taken two bottles, one of the Golden Medical Discovery' and one of 'Pellets.' I have not felt any signs of myold disease; headache all gone; menses regular without ache or pain. Indeed I feel like a new person."

DELAWARE REPUBLICANS UNITED. THE ELECTORAL TICKET OF THE ANTI-ADDICKS

WING WITHDRAWN. Dover, Del., Sept. 36.-The Republican State Committee of Delaware, representing the anti-Addicks men, met here to-day. As a result of the meeting, William C. Spruance and Manlove Hayes, candidates for Presidential electors, announced late tonight through the committee their withdrawal from the field. This leaves only one Republican electoral ticket, as the third man is also on the Union Republican ticket. The Union Republican dectoral ticket was accepted by the regular Republicans without any agreement or promises as to the State ticket.

ENTHUSIASM IN GLOVERSVILLE.

TWENTY THOUSAND PEOPLE TURN OUT TO HEAR FASSETT AND ROOSEVELT.

Gloversville, N. Y., Sept. 30 .- The Republican campaign opened in this city amidst intense enthusiasm to-night. Theodore Roosevelt and J. Sloat Fassett addressed a large audience at the Kasson Opera House. A crowd of 6,000 gathered at the entrance two hours before the hall was opened, but only about one-half of the number gained admittance. The streets were thronged until the conclusion of the addresses, and the crowd, estimated as high as 20,000, gave the speakers an enthusiastic welcome when they returned to their hotel. Lucius N. Littauer, of this city, Congress nominee of this district and the largest glove manufacturer in the United States, presided.

WHY DR. FIELD HEARD BRYAN.

NOT AT THE TAMMANY MEETING AS A SUP-PORTER OF THE BOY ORATOR, BUT OUT OF CURIOSITY TO HEAR HIM

brothers Field for more than a third of a century were recognized as devoted supporters of the National honor, unstained and unimpaired, earnest and steadfast for the maintenance of law and order. This was true of all of them; the two who are dead—David Dudley, the eminent lawyer, and Cyrus W., the constructor of the Atlantic cable-and the two living-Stephen J., Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States, and the Rev. Dr. Henry M. Field, the Editor of "The Evan-It was not without unmixed surprise gelist." therefore, that people read in yesterday morning's newspapers that the Rev. Dr. Field had occupied a seat on the platform of Tammany Hall on Tuesday night, when William Jennings Bryan made his incendlary appeal for votes and defended the An-archistic doctrines taught in the Chicago platform. People wondered, too, how the Editor of "The Evangelist" must have felt in the company of "Tom" Grady, "Barney" Martin, John Scannell, "Eddle" Sheehy, "Jim" Keating, ex-warden of Ludlow Street Jail, and others of like character who were prominent in running the Bryan meeting. They thought that Dr. Field must have found his new associations exceedingly remarkable and strange.

But it was all explained yesterday and by Dr. Field himself. He has not become infatuated with the silver craze; nor has he joined the ranks of the repudiationists. He went to Tammany Hall on Tuesday evening solely from a desire to see, hear and study so notable a person as Mr. Bryan, the repudiationists. He went to tammany into more treating society from a desire to see, hear and study so notable a person as Mr. Bryan, and he did not sit on the platform among the persons named. He accepted a place in W. P. St. John's box, and listened to Mr. Bryan, just as thousands of other loyal McKiniey men did. Dr. Fleid explained his presence at the meeting to a Tribune reporter as follows:

"I also have a desire to hear and see men on whom the attention of the public is fixed. i like to know these men and to study them. When Hourke Cockran spoke at Madison Square Garden I was present, and was delighted with the speaker. So much has been written and said about the coloquence of Mn. and in consequence I had the opportunity of satisfying my desire by getting a seat in Mr. St. John's box. Notwithstanding the fact that I differ from Mr. Bryan politically. I did not go to the meeting to ridicule him, but to listen to him with due respect, just as I would it had to so to the meeting to ridicule him, but to listen to him with due respect, just as I would it I had gone to hear a Roman Catholic priest speak or to hear any one holding views different from my own. Mr. Bryan politically. I did not go to the meeting to ridicule him, but to listen to him with due respect, just as I would it I had gone to hear a Roman Catholic priest speak or to hear any one holding views different from my own. Mr. Bryan politically. I did not go to the meeting to ridicule him, but to listen to him with due respect, just as I would away the masses. Some say he is not honest in what he professes to believe, but I am of the rided way that he has the sincerity of a fanatic. Those who shouted and howled at what Mr. Bryan said are just as sincers as the speaker in the doctrine which they hold.

I was in Paris in 1818, on the very day Louis Phillippe was overthrown, when a howling mon was of the idea that the Government should support the ven if there was no work to be done. It returns the profession of the street to the other, and then ba support them."

Dr. Field further said that Mr. Bryan, in his speech, leaned toward Socialism.

POLITICAL NOTES.

Since Senator Sherman announced as the result of his visit to Colorado that the silver craze was wan ing in that State, the politicians have been watching with renewed interest the gallant fight that Senator Wolcott is making for McKinley and Hobart. His followers are certainly pushing their campaign vicorously, and are growing more confident every day of their ability to rout the Teller faction at the polls.

John Russell Young's recent protest against the lenunciation of the Popocrats for dishonesty has called forth some vigorous criticism of his position in the matter. Mr. Young declared that there was as much honesty in the silver party as in that of their opponents," and for this "The Binghamton Republican" takes him to task. While it is, "The Republican" admits, rather hard to accuse hundreds of thousands of citizens of dishonesty, yet "the logic of events and the doctrines can meet with no other conclusion," and when any person says "that half a dollar is a good enough dollar for his creditors or for the public creditors he means to be dishonest. If he thinks that free coinage is going to increase the value of silver 100 per cent and make it intrinsically at a parity with gold he is an ignoramus. It will not be many months before all the persons who are led into the advocacy of free silver will acknowledge they were either knaves or fools."

A defender of Senator Hill has been found at last in the person of ex-Senator Eaton of Connecticut. In an interview in "The Hartford Courant" he de clares, that Hill is right in doing what he has done for the purpose of holding his party together, and then Mr. Eaton proceeds to say that all this trouble "is due to Grover Cleveland" because the President did not recommend a tax on tea, coffee, beer and other luxuries, and thus avoid a bond

In view of the strained relations existing between the two Popocratic candidates for Vice-President, "The Albany Argus" suggests in the interests of peace that Mr. Bryan send to each of them this text from Galatians, neatly worked on perforated pasteboard: "But if ye bite and devour one another, ake heed that ye be not consumed one of another,"

Bryan's defeat is conceded by the Democratic "Record" of Philadelphia, which argues that "no political party that had lost the support of its own Administration has ever elected its Presidential endidate. The election of Bryan, therefore, in the acc of the opposition of the Democratic Administration, would be a strange and stertling political the attendance was both large and enthusiastic The speakers were Colonel J. E. Bloom, J. J. Rooney, who is the secretary of the organization Edward Mandell and Max Franklin. They made addresses both inside the building and at an overflow meeting held outside for the benefit of those who could not gain admittance to the crowded hall. Colonel Bloom made the speech of the evening. To judge by the earnest attention with which the speaker's words were heard, it was the kind of speech most desired by the audience. Getting down to first principles, Colonel Bloom told in plain language which could be understood by the simplest orker present what the silver question was, what Bryan and the silverites proposed, what effect their proposals would have, and why and how it than others if Bryan were elected and his ideas carried out.

The speaker's illustrations were plain and homely. "Mr. Bryan proposes to enact laws to the effect that the workingman who to-day buys a barrel of flour with two and one-half days of labor, must work five days for the same barrel of flour." He said, in summing up his argument: "Bear in mind when I speak of a barrel of flour. I mean literally the daily bread of your wife and little ones. Workingmen, if you have a grain of comprehension, and I know you have, you will crush out with your ballots the men who are thus endeavoring to mislead you."

Another rally and open-air meeting of the League will be held to-night in front of its branch, at Nos. 33 and 55 Second-st., at 8 o'clock. Edward Hymes, Joseph Judge, Simon C. Noot, Michael Schaap, Morris Goldwater and others will make addresses.

It happened that I caught Colonel Trenholm, in his office on a Saturday for the Southern man seeking his advice—like a friend and brother.

"Though the parting of the ways has been reached, said Colonel Trenholm," and the time is at hand when duty demands that the South shall turn from the supporters of free sile whose honesty of purpose is unimpeachable—seem to have forgotten, if they ever knew, how it came about that an alliance with the friends of silver was primarily a condition of Southern representation in Congress, and how afterward allegiance to the friends of silver was demended good faith. At his hotel yesterday Mr. Griffin expressed himself as highly pleased with the large number of letters that he had received from various parts of the State declaring allegisnce to the Sound Money Democracy and pledging support in various sections. He expressed gratification with the prompt and agressive way in which the campaign had been started and conducted so far. "I have never," he said, "found and campaign so far advanced in so short a time as I find it here at our headquarters. It is plain that, with the vigorous and systematic organization that we have, and the hard work that is being done, Paimer and Buckner will get a large vote in the State."
